One of the most influential people in the field complicit with instituting the propaganda and censorship that now permeates Russian media sphere. One of the main perpetrators of the Russian hybrid information war, especially in its early stages. According to Alexei Navalny's investigations, Mr Gabrelianov illegally increased his personal wealth through his connection to Russian government. Furthermore, Mr Gabrelianov was awarded the Order of Honor of Russia for "high professionalism and objectivity in reporting on events in the Republic of Crimea." Therefore, he is responsible for actively supporting or implementing, actions or policies which undermine or threaten the territorial integrity, sovereignty, and independence of Ukraine, as well as stability and security in Ukraine. According to a credible public investigation, he is involved in a corruption scheme for Moscow Mayor Sergei Sobyenin. The media controlled by him receive state funds from the budget of the city of Moscow for PR support for Sergei Sobyenin and the activities of the ruling political regime under the guise of providing services to the city of Moscow.

In June 2005, she, among other pop and sports stars, signed an infamous “Letter in support of the verdict to the former managers of the Yukos oil company” approving the politically motivated verdict to Khodorkovsky and Lebedev. As a State Duma deputy from the ruling United Russia party, Kabaeva successively followed the party's fluctuations: the last bill she signed was about labeling NGOs critical of the Kremlin policies as “foreign agents”. This law, adopted in response to the growth of protest activity since 2011, marked a government attack on independent civil society structures, aiming at their discredit and creating legal prerequisites for their prosecution. Kabaeva voted for a few of these controversial laws that were speedily adopted in 2012 and 2013. Also, Alina Kabaeva participated in the creation of the so-called “Dima Yakovlev Law”, popularly called the “law of scoundrels”, which, among other things, forbade Americans to adopt Russian children, including those terminally ill.
